Requirements for new clients sending a saliva sample

1. Saliva Sample – should be your first saliva sample in the morning before eating, drinking or brushing your teeth. Spit in a small snack baggie, close and get all the air out of bag, then place that bag in a sandwich size baggie.
2. Sample of any prescription or nutritional products currently taking. (if you take 1, your should send at least 2) If I don't have enough of a sample it will drop your energy.
3. Sample of any products you use on your skin every day.
4. Completed application form – 3 page form.
5. Check or credit card information for cost of analysis - $300.00

Send all the above in a padded envelope or small box.

If you have any questions, please call me.

Thank you,

Deborah L. Hrncir
